

Anshu Dubey

Argonne National Laboratory

University of Chicago

- Never could make up my mind
 - UG-EE, PhD CS (numerics), Post-doc Astrophysics
 - Started out with software upending theory
 - An instance of deeply insightful discovery from a collaborator
 - I was hooked
 - Been working for years with Scientific software now
 - Got interested in software design and sustainability
 - Have been like a broken record on the topic since 2006
- Have gone from despair that it will never be heard to cautiously optimistic
